A BRIEF HISTORY OF VILAMOURA

For centuries Vilamoura was just a fishing village, on the edge of a long beach surrounded by pine forests.

D. Dinis granted it a charter on November 15th 1297. During the 15th century, D. João I ordered the first experiments to grow sugar cane here.

The resort of Vilamoura was founded by Portuguese banker Cupertino de Miranda who, with the then management company Lusotur started initial planning and building in 1966.

FREEMAPS will guide you to some of the best activities that Vilamoura has to offer!

17 CERRO DA VILA

A 2000 year journey through the history of humankind. The settlement in this area dates back at least to Roman times, possibly even pre-Roman.

Explore the ruins of this typical Roman villa.

Discover mosaics, luxurious fountains (domus), public and private baths, fish sauce factories and the remains of the fluvial port that served as a trading post.

Travel back in time through the (c. 1st-5th AD) and Islamic (c. 8th-12th AD) period.

ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITE

See the many Archaeological artefacts related to architecture, sculpture, commerce and more, many of them unique in Portugal.

In the museum you can learn about the period when the south of the Iberian Peninsula focused their economy on the exploration of metals and the production of bronze.

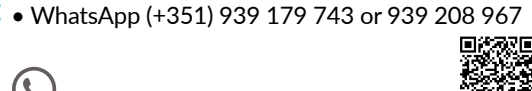

Cerro da Vila Museum and Archaeological Site is on the list of the top 10 places to visit during a trip to the Algarve, a must!
